COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

(☞To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.)

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Lizzie Craft gave us a pleasant call one day last week.

Pearl Day, of Hazel Green, spent one night last week with your writer.

Mrs. Abe Hummel got thrown out of a wagon Saturday and was badly hurt.

J. W. Taulbee, of Daysboro, passed through here Sunday on his way to Torrent.

The well-known molasses patch has been made up into pure sorghum of the sweetest kind.

Willie Alexander, of Daysboro, passed through here Sunday on his way to Greasy to attend that funeral.

Robert Brooks went to West Liberty to attend the big democratic demonstration which was held at that place last Monday.

What is left of the Sunny Side tribe took dinner with Mrs. Pike, of your town Sunday, and what was left of the Pike family spent Sunday night at Sunny Side.

Uncle Rastus Brooks and wife spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Crocket Coldiron, of South Hazel Green. She has been quite sick, but is improving now, and we hope will soon be out.

By the time this letter goes to press the writer will be on the road back to Breathitt county. We will soon be so well known along that road that we can borrow meal on time if our credit is good.

Ye scribe and Miss Cordia Brennemen, of your town, and another one, had a pleasant horse back ride Sunday afternoon. The young folks seemed to have a move on them. We met buggies, hacks and rigs with both white and colored folks in them, and all seemed to be enjoying their ride.

Oct. 23. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

Hello! friends, glad to be with you again.

John F. Power was seen in these parts Sunday.

O. W. McNabb and B. F. Boling went to Torrent Saturday.

No, "Scribe-mox," I have never been captured, but captivated.

J. J. Catron sold to Jim Canoy 200 bushels of corn for $70.

John Hedge and wife and little daughter have been visiting the family of W. A. Oldfield this week.

Geor e Honaker and wife, of Pike county, have been visiting relatives and friends in Toliver for some days.

A. B. Landrum and O. W. McNabb have returned from the grand lodge at Louisville and report a good time.

The funerals preached Sunday were well attended and good behavior was had, which speaks well for the community.

J. J. Catron and family will shortly move to Menefee county, near Chambers station, where he will make his home. They are good neighbors, and we regret to see them move, but our loss is Menefee's gain.

Quite a number of the young folks of Toliver attended the funeral. Among them were Misses Lou Hord, Rilda Cox, Mollie Clark, Lucy McNabb, Etta and Carrie Swango, H. C. Ward, George Cox, Willie Sweeney, Cletis Swango and ye scribe. All seemed to enjoy themselves, but especially Henry.

Oct. 22. SHINER.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

F. A. Craft and H. H. Swango were at West Liberty Monday.

Harrison Swango made a business trip to Campton last Thursday.

A. C. Diamond and son, F. R. Diamond, both of Lexington, were guests of the Swango House part of last week.

A bevy of young beauties, from Daysboro, were enjoying foot-back riding out this way Sunday.

Miss Jose Rose in company with Bruce Rose, both of Stillwater, passed through this neck o' the woods Saturday.

Mrs. H. H. Blankenship and sister, Miss Lizzie Long, of Consolation, were visiting Mrs. Felix Craft Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bise entertained quite a number of their friends Thursday night with a bean hulling. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves and all went merry.

Thursday, Oct. 18th, at the home of the bride's father, Granville Taulbee, John W. Hall, of Lacy creek, and Miss Annie May Taulbee, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. E. K. Pike, of Hazel Green. May peace and prosperity their footsteps attend through life is the wish of ye writer.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

Hurrah for Bryan!

Curtis Rose and A. Hoffman were seen going through here Monday.

Ye scribe in company with T. M. Lee and wife paid Campton a flying visit Saturday.

H. H. Blankenship is rusticating this week on the Licking river—hunting and fishing.

E. L. Blankenship and father went to West Liberty Monday to hear the democratic speaking.

Several of the young folks attended the funeral on Greasy Sunday and report a jolly time.

Quite a crowd of Hazel Green folks were out driving Sunday and paid A. J. Blankenship's apple orchard a visit.

Oct. 23. EINNIM.

A Big Democratic Rally.

The biggest democratic demonstration seen in Eastern Kentucky for many years was that at West Liberty on Monday. There was between 3,500 and 4,000 people present. Indeed 3,200 were counted in the procession, and the crowd around the speakers' stand was so large in its outlines that those on the extreme edge could not hear the voice of any of the speakers sufficiently plain to distinguish what was said. Hon. Bill Thorn, of Henry county, and Judge James M. Benton, of Winchester, ably represented the democratic party, and Hon. John D. White was there in his own behalf as candidate of the prohibition party. Judge Benton made a masterly effort in the which he exposed the rascality and rapacity of the republican party in such a plain picture that the blind could almost trace it, and John D. White, late of the G. O. P. himself, knowing the true inwardness of things and the rascality of his former colaborers, was even more severe in his arraignment than Judge Benton. It was a grand day and much good for the democratic party will result. John Tom Gevedon, of this place, and Isom Long, of Daysboro, were among those present from this section, and they both say it was the most enthusiastic and largest gathering they ever saw in the mountains.

Miss Wilkins's New Novel.

Mary E. Wilkins has just finished a new novel, which has been secured by The Ladies' Home Journal. The social life of a small town is her theme. She reveals its romances, its humors and its tragedies with that charming realism which characterizes the writings of this popular novelist.

TRYING A DEAD MAN.

The Trial of Henry Youtsey Progresses Despite His Condition.—An Unparalelled Case in the Courts.

The trial of Henry Youtsey progresses at Georgetown in spite of the fact that he lies in a stupor, absolutely dead to all surroundings. The conduct of Judge Cantrill in forcing his attorneys into trial under the circumstances is condemned by all right thinking people. The question of his guilt or innocence cuts no figure. It is the brutal conduct of the court and prosecution that is so abhorrent. It is a sickening spectacle. The prosecution closed its case Tuesday, after Arthur Goebel had detailed his alleged conversation with Youtsey, in which the latter connected Gov. Taylor with the assassination conspiracy. It was Arthur Goebel's statement that he had had a conversation with Youtsey that caused the latter to denounce him as a liar on the witness stand. Youtsey had been so iously ill and was very weak. The sudden frenzy and subsequent collapse nearly caused his death. He lies in the jury room on a cot, oblivious to everything. He was carried into court Tuesday by order of the Judge to testify in his own behalf. He was unconscious and made no response when questions were asked him. He was carried out and Judge Cantrill sternly ordered the trial to proceed when Youtsey's attorneys asked that the jury be discharged and the case continued. Col. Crawford, in his opening statement, said that Arthur Goebel was either demented or had perjured himself, and they would prove that he had lied. Youtsey has all along denied that he ever had a conversation with Goebel.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Edwin O. Wood, of Michigan, Secretary of the Tamworth Swine Breeders' Association, knows a good thing when he sees it. Writing the other day of the Biggle Swine Book, the latest addition to The Biggle Books, he says: "Without exaggeration or fulsome praise it is the best book which has come to my notice. I have carried it in my pocket two weeks, reading it in leisure moments, and following its advice has already saved me, as I believe, fifty dollars." This is big returns on an investment of 50 cts. write the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

He Likes Our People.

CEDAR BLUFF, VA. Oct. 17, 1900.

My dear friend, Cooper—Yours just received also papers. * * * Please accept my thanks for same. I always look forward to Monday when I get THE HERALD, for it gives me news from dear old Hazel Green. I have been very busy since I came back; have had no time or I would have written you. Give my regards to Mrs. Cooper and all inquiring friends, for I never was at a place in my life that I liked the people more than those at Hazel Green. They were all so kind and nice to me while there. I am coming back again to see you all, if nothing happens, in the spring. Wishing you success, I am, ever your friend,

W. P. CECIL.

Farm Journal is the oldest farm monthly published. But it is not moss grown; it is bristing and brimming over with good things. You should have it. Here's a chance. We have a clubbing arrangement with that paper, the Farm Journal, by which we can send our paper one year and the Farm Journal, nearly five years (remainder of 1900, all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904) to every one who will subscribe for THE HERALD; both papers at the price of ours only 65 cents.

FOR CONGRESS,

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Representative--91st District.

CECIL—We are authorized to announce JAMES B. CECIL, of Morgan county, as a candidate for Representative to the Legislature for Morgan and Wolfe counties, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

HON. J. B. WHITE, the democratic candidate from this (Tenth) congressional district, gave THE HERALD a call on Sunday afternoon last. Asked as to the political outlook in the district, Mr. White replied that he thought it was indeed favorable. He said he had been in nearly every county in the district, and from what he learned and his own observation he was satisfied that the democratic party would come very near voting as a united party. Men, he said, who four years ago were bitterly opposing Mr. Bryan, are today his most ardent friends, and he thinks the national ticket will be elected in Kentucky by 20,000 while the state ticket will be safe with a majority of 12,000 to 15,000. Regarding his own race, he thinks he is safe against both the preaching and political harangue of Bro. Hopkins, and does not look to lose many votes among those known as Brown democrats. Briefly, he is sanguine of success and thinks that if the democrats come out and do their duty he will be elected by an increased majority. He left us to go to West Liberty to hear Judge Benton, of Winchester, and Hon. Wm. Thorn, of Henry county, speak there on Monday, and said that he would continue the canvass right up to the election, and go wherever he could do the party or himself the most good.

WHEN the republican party was hoping to ride into power upon that aphorism of the "full dinner pail," they seemed to think the American laboring man but little better than a hog, and forget entirely that he needed clothing or the comforts of a home. They didn't even put a jumper and a pair of overalls along with "the full dinner pail." Nor did they say aught about books for the boys and girls of the miner. Their appeal was to his stomach alone, and the miner denies now than he had sufficient to supply that.

DEMOCRATS, there are only 12 days remaining for you to put your fences in order and "keep the rascals out." Every mother's son of you should go to work and work with a will until midnight of the Monday before election day. See your neighbor and explain to him the injury the trusts are doing him by raising the price of the articles he consumes, and read to him the accounts of the strikes in the coal mines, where hundreds of men have been thrown out of employment because they could not live at the starvation wages imposed by the trusts. Then show him that the republican party is the father of this trust iniquity and all other evils that beset the poor man, the laboring class and the farmer. Appeal to his reason, his common sense, and ask him if he thinks it right to support the rich and help make them richer, while by his vote he makes himself and all like him poorer. Show him that one-eighth of the wealth of the United States is owned by less than 1,000 of its population, and that 900 of these, or more, are members of the republican party. Calculate for him and show him if this centralization of capital is continued but a few years longer that we—all who earn their bread by the sweat of the brow—will be worse than are the subjects of a sovereign power, instead of free men under the constitution of the United States. Show him at what cost the government is maintaining the war in the Philippines, the slaughter of our soldiers in the same country, and remind him that when he buys a yard of calico for his wife, a piece of bleach for his baby, or a pound of sugar for his family that he is helping to pay the revenue that ruthlessly maintains this army, which is trying to subdue a people who are fighting for freedom. Remind him that the United States constitution declares for equal justice to all; epecial privileges to none, and ask him if he thinks this equality can be attained or maintained when by his vote he makes the rich richer and the poor poorer. By a few Kindergarten lessons like this Kentucky will remain under democretic rule and good government, the United States will be redeemed from the robber republicans, and the trusts will be busted. You must go to work and do that work with a will akin to that of one who feels that everything is incumbent upon him. Be not faint-hearted in the matter, but work with all your might, and the time is near at hand when our's will indeed be a happy land.

WHEN Roosevelt spoke at Mt. Sterling a fellow was selling McKinley and Roosevelt buttons. That is McKinley's and Roosevelt's pictures were displayed on the obverse side while on the reverse side—the pin side—were printed the words, "Elect McKinley and business goes to hell," and those who were duped into buying them kept the matter to themselves on the principle that "misery loves company," and rejoiced as each succeeding sucker took the bait. The aphorism, while inelegant in language is most eloquent in point of truthfulness.

"THE republicans four years ago promised that we should have increased wages, and today the average wage of the miner is lower than ever before," is the statement of one of the wage earners now on strike in Pennsylvania.

WEBSTER DAVIS, ex-secretary of the interior, says Mark Hanna is a liar if he says I received $125,000, or any part of it, from President Krugar for advocating the cause of the Boers.

THE republic of the United States is supervised by a president, and the empire of the Philippines by a monarch—a king. Strange that one and the same man should hold both positions, but such is the fact. This country is governed by the consent of the governd. Not so the Philippines, where the sword holds sway. A republic and a monarchy is a strange combination, and no other than Mr. McKinley ever essayed to the supreme rulership of both—one by consent, the other by conflict.

JUST when Mark Hanna and other spellbinders of the republican party were boasting of "the full dinner pail" as a result of McKinley's administration, it was indeed cruel for the miners to strike because of starvation wages. They should have been more loyal and continued to starve until after the election, at least. McKinley might then have been elected. But alas!

SENATOR HANNA is reported to have a sore thorat. No wonder, he shouldn't "holler" so loud when he denounces Bryan with lying and personal abuse.

WHY is McKinley afraid to take the stump? Is it that he can't answer the questions of the indictments against his administration?

"THEM d—— miners of Pennsylvania have knocked out all hope of Mack's election," is said to be a part of Mark Hanna's soliloquy.

TEDDY in his speeches refers to William Jenning Bryan as his "opponent." President McKinley is not in it.

DEMOCRATS, see to it that we capture the next house of representatives—it's all important.

ELECTION BILL NO. 19

Signed by the Governor and Becomes a Law.—Seueral Amendments Will Prove Favorable Features.

The House bill No. 19, embracing the non partisan amendments to the present election law, was signed by Gov. Beckham Tuesday afternoon and containing an emergency clause, it becomes effective immediately.

Besides throwing a number of safeguards around the present law to prevent violations of it the new law has five important amendments in its provisions. These are:

The furnishing of paper of 60 pounds weight by the secretary of state to the county clerks of the state, which the clerks are to use in the ballots furnished by them to the precinct election officers, and providing a penalty of $500 and six months imprisonment in the county jail for failure of the clerk to use the paper furnished him.

The preservation of both voted and spoiled ballots by the county clerks for a period of six months after the election, or in case of a contest until the same is settled.

The placing of a circle under the devices on the ballot instead of the square heretofore used.

Making it a felony for a county clerk to fail to place the name of the regular nominee of a party under the device of that party on the ballot, and fixing his punishment at confinement for three years in the state penitentiary.

Requiring a person whose right to vote has been challenged to make an affidavit t' at he is entitled to vote. If a resident of the precinct makes a counter affidavit the person shall not be allowed to vote, and in either case the affidavit shall be laid before the grand jury of the county at the first term of court following the election.

Misses Emma and Clemmie James, twin daughters of Foy James, of Charleston, Ill., are the guests of their cousin, Elza James, of this place, where they will visit for an indefinite period, and the young people of our town should meet with and welcome them, and show them all the courtesies.

Sad Accident to a Little Girl.

Just this side of Slate, in Montgomery county, on Friday last three little children climbed on the hind part of 'Squire Jim Henry Sebastian's buggy. He warned them that it was dangerous and begged them to get off, which they did, but begged him for a ride to school, near the Salem church. One of them took a seat beside him and the two others on a valise just in front. Emerging from a branch which they crossed in the road, the little girl arose from her seat to arrange something about her dress, when she lost her balance and pitched forward out of the buggy. Her foot catching in the spokes her leg was twisted around the shaft and broken in two or three places below the knee. A couple of ladies, living in the neighborhood, appeared upon the scene and took charge of the little sufferer, whom they took to a near-by house. The little girl was the daughter of Harrison Williams, who lives near Slate creek. 'Squire Sebastain said he never had anything to shock him so much in his life, and he deeply deplores the accident, but says he feels that he was in no wise to blame as it was one of those unaccountable occurrences. He was returning from Louisville, where he went as representative of Mizpah lodge, No. 507 F. & A. M., to the grand lodge, and with the exception of this sad occurrence, had a very enjoyable pleasant time.

John Pieratt will today (Thursday) go to Lee City, and put Pieratt Lodge A. & F. M. to work under the charter. Since its organization it has been working under a dispensation, and the grand master empowers Bro. Pieratt to act in his stead to inaugurate the lodge under the charter. He will stay over night and instruct them in the work. The lodge was named for him and he organized it under the dispensation.

W. R. SMITH'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, LEXINGTON, KY.

Is The Place to Educate for Profit, to Get a Living and Become Useful Citizens.

A good education is necessary to make our children influential in the world. It is an imperishable capital, a grand legacy that will last as long as life exists. No young man should venture into business for himself or attempt to take charge of another's without a business training.

Prof. Wilbur R. Smith has been the well known president of the Commercial College of Kentucky University, Lexington, Ky., for 25 years during which time he has educated thousands of young people for positions of honor and trust. His graduates are to be found in high salaried positions all over this broad land. Prof. Smith makes a specialty of imparting to young and middleaged people a practical education, as bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting, etc. He has been connected with various enterprises in an official capacity; has been vice president of a National bank, and adjutant general of Kentucky. He now devotes his whole time to his college work. This responsible and influential college watches the interest of its pupils.

Situations are secured by hundreds of its graduates every year. They have the distinguished honor of being awarded the diploma by the Kentucky University, under seal.

Lexington, Ky., contains 35,000 people. Its society has always been recognized as the most hospitable and cultivated. It is the very place for young people to attend college during the summer and fall.

At no time in the history of the entire country has there been such a demand for educated young men and women. The south is richer now by far than ever before. More factories are going up and new capital coming from the North and East seeking investment. In conclusion we refer you to Prof. Smith's advertisement in this paper. He will gladly send you full particulars of his famous college by addressing only, Prof. W. R. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

FOR SALE—A scholarship in the Commercial College of Kentucky University By early application at this office some young man can save several dollars. tf.

Henry Pieratt and wife paid Campton a flying visit on Monday last.

J. T. Day sold to W. C. Coldiron two horses and a road wagon—price private.

Miss Clarke Long attended the campmeeting at Walnut Grove the past week.

Quite a number from this place attended the funeral services on Grassy Sunday.

William Patrick and daughter, of Johnson fork of Licking, were here on Monday shopping and trading.

The painter-poet, Sam Wilson, packed his kit and left Tuesday morning for Frenchburg, Menefee county. Mr. Wilson expects to be absent several weeks.

Henry Pieratt and wife, accompanied by their little son Bruce, visited Campton Monday, as guests of Mrs. Pieratt's father, S. S. Combs, of the Combs House.

White McLin and wife and child, of Rose Hill, Va., visited his brother, R. J. McLin and family, of this place, from Thursday evening last until Monday morning.

Mrs. Lula Kash, who has been sick for a week or so, is reported as much improved, and her little daughter "Dolly" who was threatened with fever is well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel James and little son, Foy, who have been visiting relatives and friends in this part of Kentucky for the past month, left here Monday for their home in Illinois.

"For the Sake of Fun, Mischief is Done." A vast amount of mischief is done, too, because people neglect to keep their blood pure. This mischief, fortunately, may be undone by the faithful use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Bob Carroll has accepted a position as deputy sheriff under A. T. Combs, vice Dave Rose, resigned, and has Rose's territory to operate in. Bob is to be congratulated upon his good fortune in securing the appointment, but no more so than Mr. Combs in tendering it, as they will find it mutually satisfactory.

Hunting Himself a New Home.

Dr. A. C. Nickell left on Sunday morning last for Bushton, Ill., to look out a location with a view to the practice of medicine at that place. Bushton is a place of some importance, and a population of 1200 or more. There are at present two physicians only, and one of these contemplating change of residence has been in correspondence with Dr. Nickell, and proposes the sale of his practice and some personal property. Dr. Nickell thinks, from the facts he has been able to garner, that the place will offer him a good opening for the practice of his profession, and is there now to satisfy himself on that point. While his many friends here would regret to see he and his most estimable wife and interesting family move away, he has other friends there, who migrated from this section, as anxious for him to come, and the probability is that if everything turns out favorably he will locate there between now and spring. Dr. Nickell has been practicing medicine at Hazel Green for the past five years, in which time he has built up a good practice. But unfortunately he is compelled to take pay for his practice in "truck and turn over" to a large extent. Much of it is gratuitous and the little cash that he is able to corral by no means meets the needs of his family of self, wife and five children. Hence the contemplated move. He likes the people here, is a native of adjoining county, and would not think of going under any other circumstance.

Daniel and Elza James, Master Foy, Mrs. Dan'l James and Minnie L. Day spent Saturday and Sunday at Torrent and Natural Bridge. They took in the grand scenery, etc., at both places, and met with many new and various experiences. All report an enjoyable and delightful trip.

Don't Get Thin

Get fat; get nice and plump; there is safety in plumpness.

Summer has tried your food-works; winter is coming to try your breath-mill. Fall is the time to brace yourself.

But weather is tricky; look out! Look out for colds especially.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the subtlest of helps. It is food, the easiest food in the world; it is more than food, it helps you digest your food, and get more nutriment from it.

Don't get thin, there is safety in plumpness. Man woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample Its agreeable taste will surprise you.

Marion Toliver, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for killing Weed Hall, at the last term of the Wolfe circuit court, has been pardoned by Gov. Beckham, and is now enjoying his freedom with his family. He received his pardon while confined in jail at Campton pending an appeal. Judge Redwine, who tried the case, Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd, who prosecuted, and the trial jury all signed the petition for pardon.

Harris Higgins, colored, has sold his house and lot at Daysboro to Joe Robards, for $150 cash. The place contains about two acres of ground with a fairly good dwelling, good well, &c., and is considered quite a bargain at the price. Higgins and his family will remove to Bath county, in the same neighborhood where Taylor South, colored, who formerly lived here, is now located.

The contest between Breck Little and John Tyler as to who is the nominee of the democratic party for jailer in this county, was settled on Monday in favor of Little, by a unanimous vote of the committee. His majority was 24.

SHOT DEAD IN HIS TRACKS.

Gill, One of the Contractors at Caney Tunnel, Kills a Foreman Named O'Neil, and Corpse is Robbed.

A man named O'Neil, a foreman under Decreet & Gill, contractors at the Caney tunnel, was killed by Gill on Tuesday evening last. The particulars, as we learn them, are that Gill and O'Neil had some trouble a short time since, when Gill "fired" O'Neil, since which the latter has made threats against former. On Tuesday evening as Gill was going from the commissary to the boarding shack. O'Neil followed him. Gill halted and when O'Neil walked up he asked Gill, "If I were to call you a s— — — what would you do?" repeating the question two or three times. Gill replied that he did not know, to each interrogatory. O'Neil then said "You are a d— old s— — —." Gill then pushed O'Neil away from him, when the latter attempted to shoot. Gill was too quick for him, however, and shot O'Neil under the left eye, killing him instantly. In ten minutes after O'Neil was killed, it is said that he was robbed of his money and pistol. On his watch chain, in lieu of a charm, he had a $20 gold piece, which went with the rest. People who were present say that "hell broke loose," and a mob reigned supreme. Jim Sebastian, deputy sheriff, arrested Gill, and took him to Pinhook under guard, where it is presumed he had his examining trial, the result of which we have not learned.

Had Her Leg Broken.

Just as she was starting to her school on Monday morning last, Miss Lillie Evans had the misfortune to be thrown from her horse, breaking her leg below the knee. Dr. Taulbee was at once summoned, and with the assistance of his son Edward and Willie Kash, reduced the fracture. She was suffering so intensly that they had to administer chloroform, but she is now resting easy. The break was just above the ankle joint. Her sister Lula took her place as teacher of the Hollis Gibbs school on Monday, and was relieved Tuesday by Ova Swango, who will continue to teach until Miss Lillie is sufficiently recovered to resume her duties. She is a great favorite with the people of Hazel Green, indeed with all who know her, and she has the sympathy of all in her misfortune. Later.—Since the above was in type it is learned that Mr. Swango did not teach. School was dismissed until Miss Evans recovers.

Henry Pieratt and family attended meeting at the Greasy church on Blackwater, on Sunday, and incidentally Henry was heard to remark that it was the first time he had been to church for six years. He felt so good while at the meeting that it is said he announced his determination of attending regularly hereafter, and his friends are somewhat hopeful for him. His example, if emulated, will lead to much good.

There is a big campmeeting in progress at Bethel church, in this county, under the auspices of the Congregationalists. Frank Brenneman and Ed. Taulbee, who attended the meeting on Sunday, say there was a good congregation and fairly good order, notwitstanding the horse trader was largely in evidence.

PICKED UP IN OUR OFFICE.

If I should kiss you, dearest,
Pray tell me what you'd do;
Would you scorn the love I hold
In sacredness for you?

If this emergency should arise,
Would you that love erase?
In plaintive tones she simply said,
I'd meet it face to face.

There will be a grand democratic rally and parade at Campton, Friday, November 2nd. Hon. James D. Black will address the citizens on the issue of the day. All voters, regardless of party, are invited to be present and hear this able orator.

The academy, of this place, is flourishing, new scholars are enrolling every week. If it continues to gain in the future as in the past it will be the leading school of the mountains.

STAND, MR. YERKES,

And Answer the Following Twenty-two Questions,

At Which Time the People of Kentucky Are Prepared to Propound Yet Others for Your Word.

1. If you are elected governor will you before the trial of any of the persons now indicted for being accessory to the murder of Gov. Goebel, pardon any of them?

2. If they are convicted after trial, will you then pardon any of them.

3. If Taylor and Finley are still fugitives, will you issue a requisition for their apprehension?

4. Do you approve the conduct of Gov. Mount, of Indiana, in refusing to honor the requisition of Gov. Beckham for the arrest of Taylor and Finley?

5. Have you ever in public or private conversation, condemned the assassination of Goebel except upon the ground that it might injure the republican party?

6. Were you present at the secret Galt House convention of republicans in Louisville on the night following the Colson-Scott tragedy at Frankfort?

7. If you answer yes to the last question, as you undoubtedly must answer, then you will be further asked if you advocated or approved a proposition to bring the mountain feudists to Frankfort to murder or overawe Goebel or the legislature?

8. If you answer you do not, then you will be asked why you did not, as a dear lover of "civil liberty," that same sweet "civil liberty" your platform and stump orators prate so much about—why you did not, as a lover of liberty and law, expose this damnable plot? (Parenthetical.) We trust you will not endeavor to excuse yourself on the ground that you were in another part of the large room and that you were afflicted with the same sort of buzzing that caused Mr. Blaine to misunderstand Bro. Burchard, and that your imperfect understanding was that the assassins were to be brought only to protect the "civil liberties" of everybody and not for murder.

9. Do you approve the act of Taylor in refusing to allow the civil authorities to search the executive building for the murderers of Goebel?

10. Do you approve Taylor's act in driving the members of the legislature from the State House with soldiers?

11. Do you approve his act in driving the legislature at the point of the bayonet from the court house and other public places in Frankfort, when it endeavored to assemble?

12. Do you approve his act in ordering his soldiers to chase the members of the legislature through the streets of Frankfort?

13. Do you approve his act in quartering soldiers and armed bodies of mountaineers in the public buildings at Frankfort with orders to them to allow no one access to them without a pass from him or the adjutant general.

14. Do you approve his act in driving the judges of the Court of Appeals from Frankfort by converting the state capital into military barracks?

15. Do you approve his act in refusing to obey the writ of habeas corpus?

16. Do you approve his course now in remaining in Indiana, a fugitive from justice?

17. Do you believe he meant to lie or tell the truth when he publicly stated that if indicted he would never become a fugitive from justice, but would return to Kentucky and stand trial?

18. Do you think he ought to return to Kentucky now to stand his trial?

19. If you are elected governor will you obey the constitution and laws of the state?

20. Do you believe the constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land?

21. Do you believe that the following is a correct quotation of Sub-section 2, Section 2, Article IV, constitution of the U. S.: "Any person charged in any state with treason, felony or any other crimes, who shall flee from justice and be found in another state, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be given up to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime?"

22. If this be correct quotation, why did you, as a member of the republican convention at Philadelphia, at a meeting of the Kentucky delegation of republicans, approve a resolution commending and praising Gov. Mount, of Indiana, for deliberately violating this law?

These are a few, only a sample of the inquiries which the people of the state will ask you to answer. You are a courteous gentleman and will no doubt oblige them by full and (shall we say it?) satisfactory answers.—W. P. Walton, in Stanford Journal.

If your horse or mule has a lump, bunch, bone spavine, curb, splint or any like ailment, go to John M. Rose and get a bottle of Quinn's Ointment, which will remove the obstacle tf

All who desire to wear nicely laundried shirts, collars, cuffs, etc., should call on Robert Cord, agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry, the work of which is superior to that of any laundry in the state. tf

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

"WHITAR"

ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way.

It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features.

It suds neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white.

It lathers in Hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size.

It contains much more glycerine than other soaps and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended.

Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

Ask your dealer for it.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

(☞To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.)

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Lizzie Craft gave us a pleasant call one day last week.

Pearl Day, of Hazel Green, spent one night last week with your writer.

Mrs. Abe Hummel got thrown out of a wagon Saturday and was badly hurt.

J. W. Taulbee, of Daysboro, passed through here Sunday on his way to Torrent.

The well-known molasses patch has been made up into pure sorghum of the sweetest kind.

Willie Alexander, of Daysboro, passed through here Sunday on his way to Greasy to attend that funeral.

Robert Brooks went to West Liberty to attend the big democratic demonstration which was held at that place last Monday.

What is left of the Sunny Side tribe took dinner with Mrs. Pike, of your town Sunday, and what was left of the Pike family spent Sunday night at Sunny Side.

Uncle Rastus Brooks and wife spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Crocket Coldiron, of South Hazel Green. She has been quite sick, but is improving now, and we hope will soon be out.

By the time this letter goes to press the writer will be on the road back to Breathitt county. We will soon be so well known along that road that we can borrow meal on time if our credit is good.

Ye scribe and Miss Cordia Brennemen, of your town, and another one, had a pleasant horse back ride Sunday afternoon. The young folks seemed to have a move on them. We met buggies, hacks and rigs with both white and colored folks in them, and all seemed to be enjoying their ride.

Oct. 23. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

Hello! friends, glad to be with you again.

John F. Power was seen in these parts Sunday.

O. W. McNabb and B. F. Boling went to Torrent Saturday.

No, "Scribe-mox," I have never been captured, but captivated.

J. J. Catron sold to Jim Canoy 200 bushels of corn for $70.

John Hedge and wife and little daughter have been visiting the family of W. A. Oldfield this week.

Geor e Honaker and wife, of Pike county, have been visiting relatives and friends in Toliver for some days.

A. B. Landrum and O. W. McNabb have returned from the grand lodge at Louisville and report a good time.

The funerals preached Sunday were well attended and good behavior was had, which speaks well for the community.

J. J. Catron and family will shortly move to Menefee county, near Chambers station, where he will make his home. They are good neighbors, and we regret to see them move, but our loss is Menefee's gain.

Quite a number of the young folks of Toliver attended the funeral. Among them were Misses Lou Hord, Rilda Cox, Mollie Clark, Lucy McNabb, Etta and Carrie Swango, H. C. Ward, George Cox, Willie Sweeney, Cletis Swango and ye scribe. All seemed to enjoy themselves, but especially Henry.

Oct. 22. SHINER.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

F. A. Craft and H. H. Swango were at West Liberty Monday.

Harrison Swango made a business trip to Campton last Thursday.

A. C. Diamond and son, F. R. Diamond, both of Lexington, were guests of the Swango House part of last week.

A bevy of young beauties, from Daysboro, were enjoying foot-back riding out this way Sunday.

Miss Jose Rose in company with Bruce Rose, both of Stillwater, passed through this neck o' the woods Saturday.

Mrs. H. H. Blankenship and sister, Miss Lizzie Long, of Consolation, were visiting Mrs. Felix Craft Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bise entertained quite a number of their friends Thursday night with a bean hulling. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves and all went merry.

Thursday, Oct. 18th, at the home of the bride's father, Granville Taulbee, John W. Hall, of Lacy creek, and Miss Annie May Taulbee, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. E. K. Pike, of Hazel Green. May peace and prosperity their footsteps attend through life is the wish of ye writer.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

Hurrah for Bryan!

Curtis Rose and A. Hoffman were seen going through here Monday.

Ye scribe in company with T. M. Lee and wife paid Campton a flying visit Saturday.

H. H. Blankenship is rusticating this week on the Licking river—hunting and fishing.

E. L. Blankenship and father went to West Liberty Monday to hear the democratic speaking.

Several of the young folks attended the funeral on Greasy Sunday and report a jolly time.

Quite a crowd of Hazel Green folks were out driving Sunday and paid A. J. Blankenship's apple orchard a visit.

Oct. 23. EINNIM.

A Big Democratic Rally.

The biggest democratic demonstration seen in Eastern Kentucky for many years was that at West Liberty on Monday. There was between 3,500 and 4,000 people present. Indeed 3,200 were counted in the procession, and the crowd around the speakers' stand was so large in its outlines that those on the extreme edge could not hear the voice of any of the speakers sufficiently plain to distinguish what was said. Hon. Bill Thorn, of Henry county, and Judge James M. Benton, of Winchester, ably represented the democratic party, and Hon. John D. White was there in his own behalf as candidate of the prohibition party. Judge Benton made a masterly effort in the which he exposed the rascality and rapacity of the republican party in such a plain picture that the blind could almost trace it, and John D. White, late of the G. O. P. himself, knowing the true inwardness of things and the rascality of his former colaborers, was even more severe in his arraignment than Judge Benton. It was a grand day and much good for the democratic party will result. John Tom Gevedon, of this place, and Isom Long, of Daysboro, were among those present from this section, and they both say it was the most enthusiastic and largest gathering they ever saw in the mountains.

Miss Wilkins's New Novel.

Mary E. Wilkins has just finished a new novel, which has been secured by The Ladies' Home Journal. The social life of a small town is her theme. She reveals its romances, its humors and its tragedies with that charming realism which characterizes the writings of this popular novelist.

TRYING A DEAD MAN.

The Trial of Henry Youtsey Progresses Despite His Condition.—An Unparalelled Case in the Courts.

The trial of Henry Youtsey progresses at Georgetown in spite of the fact that he lies in a stupor, absolutely dead to all surroundings. The conduct of Judge Cantrill in forcing his attorneys into trial under the circumstances is condemned by all right thinking people. The question of his guilt or innocence cuts no figure. It is the brutal conduct of the court and prosecution that is so abhorrent. It is a sickening spectacle. The prosecution closed its case Tuesday, after Arthur Goebel had detailed his alleged conversation with Youtsey, in which the latter connected Gov. Taylor with the assassination conspiracy. It was Arthur Goebel's statement that he had had a conversation with Youtsey that caused the latter to denounce him as a liar on the witness stand. Youtsey had been so iously ill and was very weak. The sudden frenzy and subsequent collapse nearly caused his death. He lies in the jury room on a cot, oblivious to everything. He was carried into court Tuesday by order of the Judge to testify in his own behalf. He was unconscious and made no response when questions were asked him. He was carried out and Judge Cantrill sternly ordered the trial to proceed when Youtsey's attorneys asked that the jury be discharged and the case continued. Col. Crawford, in his opening statement, said that Arthur Goebel was either demented or had perjured himself, and they would prove that he had lied. Youtsey has all along denied that he ever had a conversation with Goebel.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Edwin O. Wood, of Michigan, Secretary of the Tamworth Swine Breeders' Association, knows a good thing when he sees it. Writing the other day of the Biggle Swine Book, the latest addition to The Biggle Books, he says: "Without exaggeration or fulsome praise it is the best book which has come to my notice. I have carried it in my pocket two weeks, reading it in leisure moments, and following its advice has already saved me, as I believe, fifty dollars." This is big returns on an investment of 50 cts. write the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

He Likes Our People.

CEDAR BLUFF, VA. Oct. 17, 1900.

My dear friend, Cooper—Yours just received also papers. * * * Please accept my thanks for same. I always look forward to Monday when I get THE HERALD, for it gives me news from dear old Hazel Green. I have been very busy since I came back; have had no time or I would have written you. Give my regards to Mrs. Cooper and all inquiring friends, for I never was at a place in my life that I liked the people more than those at Hazel Green. They were all so kind and nice to me while there. I am coming back again to see you all, if nothing happens, in the spring. Wishing you success, I am, ever your friend,

FOR CONGRESS,

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Representative--91st District.

CECIL—We are authorized to announce JAMES B. CECIL, of Morgan county, as a candidate for Representative to the Legislature for Morgan and Wolfe counties, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

HON. J. B. WHITE, the democratic candidate from this (Tenth) congressional district, gave THE HERALD a call on Sunday afternoon last. Asked as to the political outlook in the district, Mr. White replied that he thought it was indeed favorable. He said he had been in nearly every county in the district, and from what he learned and his own observation he was satisfied that the democratic party would come very near voting as a united party. Men, he said, who four years ago were bitterly opposing Mr. Bryan, are today his most ardent friends, and he thinks the national ticket will be elected in Kentucky by 20,000 while the state ticket will be safe with a majority of 12,000 to 15,000. Regarding his own race, he thinks he is safe against both the preaching and political harangue of Bro. Hopkins, and does not look to lose many votes among those known as Brown democrats. Briefly, he is sanguine of success and thinks that if the democrats come out and do their duty he will be elected by an increased majority. He left us to go to West Liberty to hear Judge Benton, of Winchester, and Hon. Wm. Thorn, of Henry county, speak there on Monday, and said that he would continue the canvass right up to the election, and go wherever he could do the party or himself the most good.

WHEN the republican party was hoping to ride into power upon that aphorism of the "full dinner pail," they seemed to think the American laboring man but little better than a hog, and forget entirely that he needed clothing or the comforts of a home. They didn't even put a jumper and a pair of overalls along with "the full dinner pail." Nor did they say aught about books for the boys and girls of the miner. Their appeal was to his stomach alone, and the miner denies now than he had sufficient to supply that.

DEMOCRATS, there are only 12 days remaining for you to put your fences in order and "keep the rascals out." Every mother's son of you should go to work and work with a will until midnight of the Monday before election day. See your neighbor and explain to him the injury the trusts are doing him by raising the price of the articles he consumes, and read to him the accounts of the strikes in the coal mines, where hundreds of men have been thrown out of employment because they could not live at the starvation wages imposed by the trusts. Then show him that the republican party is the father of this trust iniquity and all other evils that beset the poor man, the laboring class and the farmer. Appeal to his reason, his common sense, and ask him if he thinks it right to support the rich and help make them richer, while by his vote he makes himself and all like him poorer. Show him that one-eighth of the wealth of the United States is owned by less than 1,000 of its population, and that 900 of these, or more, are members of the republican party. Calculate for him and show him if this centralization of capital is continued but a few years longer that we—all who earn their bread by the sweat of the brow—will be worse than are the subjects of a sovereign power, instead of free men under the constitution of the United States. Show him at what cost the government is maintaining the war in the Philippines, the slaughter of our soldiers in the same country, and remind him that when he buys a yard of calico for his wife, a piece of bleach for his baby, or a pound of sugar for his family that he is helping to pay the revenue that ruthlessly maintains this army, which is trying to subdue a people who are fighting for freedom. Remind him that the United States constitution declares for equal justice to all; epecial privileges to none, and ask him if he thinks this equality can be attained or maintained when by his vote he makes the rich richer and the poor poorer. By a few Kindergarten lessons like this Kentucky will remain under democretic rule and good government, the United States will be redeemed from the robber republicans, and the trusts will be busted. You must go to work and do that work with a will akin to that of one who feels that everything is incumbent upon him. Be not faint-hearted in the matter, but work with all your might, and the time is near at hand when our's will indeed be a happy land.

WHEN Roosevelt spoke at Mt. Sterling a fellow was selling McKinley and Roosevelt buttons. That is McKinley's and Roosevelt's pictures were displayed on the obverse side while on the reverse side—the pin side—were printed the words, "Elect McKinley and business goes to hell," and those who were duped into buying them kept the matter to themselves on the principle that "misery loves company," and rejoiced as each succeeding sucker took the bait. The aphorism, while inelegant in language is most eloquent in point of truthfulness.

"THE republicans four years ago promised that we should have increased wages, and today the average wage of the miner is lower than ever before," is the statement of one of the wage earners now on strike in Pennsylvania.

WEBSTER DAVIS, ex-secretary of the interior, says Mark Hanna is a liar if he says I received $125,000, or any part of it, from President Krugar for advocating the cause of the Boers.

THE republic of the United States is supervised by a president, and the empire of the Philippines by a monarch—a king. Strange that one and the same man should hold both positions, but such is the fact. This country is governed by the consent of the governd. Not so the Philippines, where the sword holds sway. A republic and a monarchy is a strange combination, and no other than Mr. McKinley ever essayed to the supreme rulership of both—one by consent, the other by conflict.

JUST when Mark Hanna and other spellbinders of the republican party were boasting of "the full dinner pail" as a result of McKinley's administration, it was indeed cruel for the miners to strike because of starvation wages. They should have been more loyal and continued to starve until after the election, at least. McKinley might then have been elected. But alas!

SENATOR HANNA is reported to have a sore thorat. No wonder, he shouldn't "holler" so loud when he denounces Bryan with lying and personal abuse.

WHY is McKinley afraid to take the stump? Is it that he can't answer the questions of the indictments against his administration?

"THEM d—— miners of Pennsylvania have knocked out all hope of Mack's election," is said to be a part of Mark Hanna's soliloquy.

TEDDY in his speeches refers to William Jenning Bryan as his "opponent." President McKinley is not in it.

DEMOCRATS, see to it that we capture the next house of representatives—it's all important.

ELECTION BILL NO. 19

Signed by the Governor and Becomes a Law.—Seueral Amendments Will Prove Favorable Features.

The House bill No. 19, embracing the non partisan amendments to the present election law, was signed by Gov. Beckham Tuesday afternoon and containing an emergency clause, it becomes effective immediately.

Besides throwing a number of safeguards around the present law to prevent violations of it the new law has five important amendments in its provisions. These are:

The furnishing of paper of 60 pounds weight by the secretary of state to the county clerks of the state, which the clerks are to use in the ballots furnished by them to the precinct election officers, and providing a penalty of $500 and six months imprisonment in the county jail for failure of the clerk to use the paper furnished him.

The preservation of both voted and spoiled ballots by the county clerks for a period of six months after the election, or in case of a contest until the same is settled.

The placing of a circle under the devices on the ballot instead of the square heretofore used.

Making it a felony for a county clerk to fail to place the name of the regular nominee of a party under the device of that party on the ballot, and fixing his punishment at confinement for three years in the state penitentiary.

Requiring a person whose right to vote has been challenged to make an affidavit t' at he is entitled to vote. If a resident of the precinct makes a counter affidavit the person shall not be allowed to vote, and in either case the affidavit shall be laid before the grand jury of the county at the first term of court following the election.

Misses Emma and Clemmie James, twin daughters of Foy James, of Charleston, Ill., are the guests of their cousin, Elza James, of this place, where they will visit for an indefinite period, and the young people of our town should meet with and welcome them, and show them all the courtesies.

Sad Accident to a Little Girl.

Just this side of Slate, in Montgomery county, on Friday last three little children climbed on the hind part of 'Squire Jim Henry Sebastian's buggy. He warned them that it was dangerous and begged them to get off, which they did, but begged him for a ride to school, near the Salem church. One of them took a seat beside him and the two others on a valise just in front. Emerging from a branch which they crossed in the road, the little girl arose from her seat to arrange something about her dress, when she lost her balance and pitched forward out of the buggy. Her foot catching in the spokes her leg was twisted around the shaft and broken in two or three places below the knee. A couple of ladies, living in the neighborhood, appeared upon the scene and took charge of the little sufferer, whom they took to a near-by house. The little girl was the daughter of Harrison Williams, who lives near Slate creek. 'Squire Sebastain said he never had anything to shock him so much in his life, and he deeply deplores the accident, but says he feels that he was in no wise to blame as it was one of those unaccountable occurrences. He was returning from Louisville, where he went as representative of Mizpah lodge, No. 507 F. & A. M., to the grand lodge, and with the exception of this sad occurrence, had a very enjoyable pleasant time.

John Pieratt will today (Thursday) go to Lee City, and put Pieratt Lodge A. & F. M. to work under the charter. Since its organization it has been working under a dispensation, and the grand master empowers Bro. Pieratt to act in his stead to inaugurate the lodge under the charter. He will stay over night and instruct them in the work. The lodge was named for him and he organized it under the dispensation.

W. R. SMITH'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, LEXINGTON, KY.

Is The Place to Educate for Profit, to Get a Living and Become Useful Citizens.

A good education is necessary to make our children influential in the world. It is an imperishable capital, a grand legacy that will last as long as life exists. No young man should venture into business for himself or attempt to take charge of another's without a business training.

Prof. Wilbur R. Smith has been the well known president of the Commercial College of Kentucky University, Lexington, Ky., for 25 years during which time he has educated thousands of young people for positions of honor and trust. His graduates are to be found in high salaried positions all over this broad land. Prof. Smith makes a specialty of imparting to young and middleaged people a practical education, as bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting, etc. He has been connected with various enterprises in an official capacity; has been vice president of a National bank, and adjutant general of Kentucky. He now devotes his whole time to his college work. This responsible and influential college watches the interest of its pupils.

Situations are secured by hundreds of its graduates every year. They have the distinguished honor of being awarded the diploma by the Kentucky University, under seal.

Lexington, Ky., contains 35,000 people. Its society has always been recognized as the most hospitable and cultivated. It is the very place for young people to attend college during the summer and fall.

At no time in the history of the entire country has there been such a demand for educated young men and women. The south is richer now by far than ever before. More factories are going up and new capital coming from the North and East seeking investment. In conclusion we refer you to Prof. Smith's advertisement in this paper. He will gladly send you full particulars of his famous college by addressing only, Prof. W. R. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

FOR SALE—A scholarship in the Commercial College of Kentucky University By early application at this office some young man can save several dollars. tf.

William Patrick and daughter, of Johnson fork of Licking, were here on Monday shopping and trading.

The painter-poet, Sam Wilson, packed his kit and left Tuesday morning for Frenchburg, Menefee county. Mr. Wilson expects to be absent several weeks.

Henry Pieratt and wife, accompanied by their little son Bruce, visited Campton Monday, as guests of Mrs. Pieratt's father, S. S. Combs, of the Combs House.

White McLin and wife and child, of Rose Hill, Va., visited his brother, R. J. McLin and family, of this place, from Thursday evening last until Monday morning.

Mrs. Lula Kash, who has been sick for a week or so, is reported as much improved, and her little daughter "Dolly" who was threatened with fever is well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel James and little son, Foy, who have been visiting relatives and friends in this part of Kentucky for the past month, left here Monday for their home in Illinois.

Bob Carroll has accepted a position as deputy sheriff under A. T. Combs, vice Dave Rose, resigned, and has Rose's territory to operate in. Bob is to be congratulated upon his good fortune in securing the appointment, but no more so than Mr. Combs in tendering it, as they will find it mutually satisfactory.

Hunting Himself a New Home.

Dr. A. C. Nickell left on Sunday morning last for Bushton, Ill., to look out a location with a view to the practice of medicine at that place. Bushton is a place of some importance, and a population of 1200 or more. There are at present two physicians only, and one of these contemplating change of residence has been in correspondence with Dr. Nickell, and proposes the sale of his practice and some personal property. Dr. Nickell thinks, from the facts he has been able to garner, that the place will offer him a good opening for the practice of his profession, and is there now to satisfy himself on that point. While his many friends here would regret to see he and his most estimable wife and interesting family move away, he has other friends there, who migrated from this section, as anxious for him to come, and the probability is that if everything turns out favorably he will locate there between now and spring. Dr. Nickell has been practicing medicine at Hazel Green for the past five years, in which time he has built up a good practice. But unfortunately he is compelled to take pay for his practice in "truck and turn over" to a large extent. Much of it is gratuitous and the little cash that he is able to corral by no means meets the needs of his family of self, wife and five children. Hence the contemplated move. He likes the people here, is a native of adjoining county, and would not think of going under any other circumstance.

Daniel and Elza James, Master Foy, Mrs. Dan'l James and Minnie L. Day spent Saturday and Sunday at Torrent and Natural Bridge. They took in the grand scenery, etc., at both places, and met with many new and various experiences. All report an enjoyable and delightful trip.

Marion Toliver, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for killing Weed Hall, at the last term of the Wolfe circuit court, has been pardoned by Gov. Beckham, and is now enjoying his freedom with his family. He received his pardon while confined in jail at Campton pending an appeal. Judge Redwine, who tried the case, Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd, who prosecuted, and the trial jury all signed the petition for pardon.

Harris Higgins, colored, has sold his house and lot at Daysboro to Joe Robards, for $150 cash. The place contains about two acres of ground with a fairly good dwelling, good well, &c., and is considered quite a bargain at the price. Higgins and his family will remove to Bath county, in the same neighborhood where Taylor South, colored, who formerly lived here, is now located.

The contest between Breck Little and John Tyler as to who is the nominee of the democratic party for jailer in this county, was settled on Monday in favor of Little, by a unanimous vote of the committee. His majority was 24.

SHOT DEAD IN HIS TRACKS.

Gill, One of the Contractors at Caney Tunnel, Kills a Foreman Named O'Neil, and Corpse is Robbed.

A man named O'Neil, a foreman under Decreet & Gill, contractors at the Caney tunnel, was killed by Gill on Tuesday evening last. The particulars, as we learn them, are that Gill and O'Neil had some trouble a short time since, when Gill "fired" O'Neil, since which the latter has made threats against former. On Tuesday evening as Gill was going from the commissary to the boarding shack. O'Neil followed him. Gill halted and when O'Neil walked up he asked Gill, "If I were to call you a s— — — what would you do?" repeating the question two or three times. Gill replied that he did not know, to each interrogatory. O'Neil then said "You are a d— old s— — —." Gill then pushed O'Neil away from him, when the latter attempted to shoot. Gill was too quick for him, however, and shot O'Neil under the left eye, killing him instantly. In ten minutes after O'Neil was killed, it is said that he was robbed of his money and pistol. On his watch chain, in lieu of a charm, he had a $20 gold piece, which went with the rest. People who were present say that "hell broke loose," and a mob reigned supreme. Jim Sebastian, deputy sheriff, arrested Gill, and took him to Pinhook under guard, where it is presumed he had his examining trial, the result of which we have not learned.

Had Her Leg Broken.

Just as she was starting to her school on Monday morning last, Miss Lillie Evans had the misfortune to be thrown from her horse, breaking her leg below the knee. Dr. Taulbee was at once summoned, and with the assistance of his son Edward and Willie Kash, reduced the fracture. She was suffering so intensly that they had to administer chloroform, but she is now resting easy. The break was just above the ankle joint. Her sister Lula took her place as teacher of the Hollis Gibbs school on Monday, and was relieved Tuesday by Ova Swango, who will continue to teach until Miss Lillie is sufficiently recovered to resume her duties. She is a great favorite with the people of Hazel Green, indeed with all who know her, and she has the sympathy of all in her misfortune. Later.—Since the above was in type it is learned that Mr. Swango did not teach. School was dismissed until Miss Evans recovers.

Henry Pieratt and family attended meeting at the Greasy church on Blackwater, on Sunday, and incidentally Henry was heard to remark that it was the first time he had been to church for six years. He felt so good while at the meeting that it is said he announced his determination of attending regularly hereafter, and his friends are somewhat hopeful for him. His example, if emulated, will lead to much good.

There is a big campmeeting in progress at Bethel church, in this county, under the auspices of the Congregationalists. Frank Brenneman and Ed. Taulbee, who attended the meeting on Sunday, say there was a good congregation and fairly good order, notwitstanding the horse trader was largely in evidence.

PICKED UP IN OUR OFFICE.

If I should kiss you, dearest,
Pray tell me what you'd do;
Would you scorn the love I hold
In sacredness for you?

If this emergency should arise,
Would you that love erase?
In plaintive tones she simply said,
I'd meet it face to face.

There will be a grand democratic rally and parade at Campton, Friday, November 2nd. Hon. James D. Black will address the citizens on the issue of the day. All voters, regardless of party, are invited to be present and hear this able orator.

STAND, MR. YERKES,

And Answer the Following Twenty-two Questions,

At Which Time the People of Kentucky Are Prepared to Propound Yet Others for Your Word.

1. If you are elected governor will you before the trial of any of the persons now indicted for being accessory to the murder of Gov. Goebel, pardon any of them?

2. If they are convicted after trial, will you then pardon any of them.

3. If Taylor and Finley are still fugitives, will you issue a requisition for their apprehension?

4. Do you approve the conduct of Gov. Mount, of Indiana, in refusing to honor the requisition of Gov. Beckham for the arrest of Taylor and Finley?

5. Have you ever in public or private conversation, condemned the assassination of Goebel except upon the ground that it might injure the republican party?

6. Were you present at the secret Galt House convention of republicans in Louisville on the night following the Colson-Scott tragedy at Frankfort?

7. If you answer yes to the last question, as you undoubtedly must answer, then you will be further asked if you advocated or approved a proposition to bring the mountain feudists to Frankfort to murder or overawe Goebel or the legislature?

8. If you answer you do not, then you will be asked why you did not, as a dear lover of "civil liberty," that same sweet "civil liberty" your platform and stump orators prate so much about—why you did not, as a lover of liberty and law, expose this damnable plot? (Parenthetical.) We trust you will not endeavor to excuse yourself on the ground that you were in another part of the large room and that you were afflicted with the same sort of buzzing that caused Mr. Blaine to misunderstand Bro. Burchard, and that your imperfect understanding was that the assassins were to be brought only to protect the "civil liberties" of everybody and not for murder.

9. Do you approve the act of Taylor in refusing to allow the civil authorities to search the executive building for the murderers of Goebel?

10. Do you approve Taylor's act in driving the members of the legislature from the State House with soldiers?

11. Do you approve his act in driving the legislature at the point of the bayonet from the court house and other public places in Frankfort, when it endeavored to assemble?

12. Do you approve his act in ordering his soldiers to chase the members of the legislature through the streets of Frankfort?

13. Do you approve his act in quartering soldiers and armed bodies of mountaineers in the public buildings at Frankfort with orders to them to allow no one access to them without a pass from him or the adjutant general.

14. Do you approve his act in driving the judges of the Court of Appeals from Frankfort by converting the state capital into military barracks?

15. Do you approve his act in refusing to obey the writ of habeas corpus?

16. Do you approve his course now in remaining in Indiana, a fugitive from justice?

17. Do you believe he meant to lie or tell the truth when he publicly stated that if indicted he would never become a fugitive from justice, but would return to Kentucky and stand trial?

18. Do you think he ought to return to Kentucky now to stand his trial?

19. If you are elected governor will you obey the constitution and laws of the state?

20. Do you believe the constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land?

21. Do you believe that the following is a correct quotation of Sub-section 2, Section 2, Article IV, constitution of the U. S.: "Any person charged in any state with treason, felony or any other crimes, who shall flee from justice and be found in another state, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be given up to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime?"

22. If this be correct quotation, why did you, as a member of the republican convention at Philadelphia, at a meeting of the Kentucky delegation of republicans, approve a resolution commending and praising Gov. Mount, of Indiana, for deliberately violating this law?

These are a few, only a sample of the inquiries which the people of the state will ask you to answer. You are a courteous gentleman and will no doubt oblige them by full and (shall we say it?) satisfactory answers.—W. P. Walton, in Stanford Journal.

If your horse or mule has a lump, bunch, bone spavine, curb, splint or any like ailment, go to John M. Rose and get a bottle of Quinn's Ointment, which will remove the obstacle tf

All who desire to wear nicely laundried shirts, collars, cuffs, etc., should call on Robert Cord, agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry, the work of which is superior to that of any laundry in the state. tf

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

"WHITAR"

ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way.

It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features.

It suds neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white.

It lathers in Hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size.

It contains much more glycerine than other soaps and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended.

Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

Ask your dealer for it.
